Directions: Find six quotes or examples that reveal important or different aspects of your subject. Then in the outer strand, explain what they mean. Be sure, when possible, to include page citations for your quotes.

Making Inferences: Using the notes from your target, draw some conclusions about your subject. If you are writing about a fictional character, for example, explain what kind of person they are. Be sure to use direct quotations and citation information (e.g., I, ii, 35-40) when supporting your analysis.
